

I'm writing in support of WCOM in Carrboro, NC. We are really excited to have an FM station focused on local programming. With the consolidation of FM stations, I feel it is more important than ever to have this sort of listening option. Thanks.